The site was used as a car parking area (30 spaces) and extends to some 800 sq. meters almost all of which is surfaced in either a concrete slab or tarmac. The site is largely level, however the eastern part of the site does rise slightly towards the east. The site also serves as an access route through to Mellinges Close, a small residential development of 4 detached dwellings immediately to the north.

The site is surrounded by red brick walls with piers to the entrance to Mellinges Close. There is a level difference between the site and the pavement along Town Hill to the west, which is at a lower level to the site. There are some trees lining the western side of the access road through the site.

West Malling is an attractive town with an impressive array of independent shops, restaurants and cafes. Further facilities can be found at Kings Hill including supermarkets and David Lloyd Health Club.

West Malling station offers mainline services to London Bridge, Charring Cross, and London Victoria.

Kent is renowned for a number of excellent schools at both primary and secondary level in both state and private sectors, including grammar schools.
